I believe the idea behind this bill is a good one, but I am not in favor of the bill as drawn. I recall that several years ago when I was in the ODM, a similar bill was up for discussion.

So far as the Agency is concerned, my main criticism is that there is no provision for secrecy. Security clearance is not considered among the qualifications necessary for membership on the Board. Possibly these matters could be settled administratively if a bill of this sort is ever passed. I do think that the idea itself is of definite interest to the Agency.
